Storyboard

Users embark on the pond boardwalk, greeted by the tranquil pond and its surrounding lush greenery.

Users pause as they notice the laser pistol docking station along the boardwalk.

One user eagerly picks up the laser gun from the docking station, inspecting it eagerly.

A user takes aim with their laser pistols at the light installation targets set across the pond

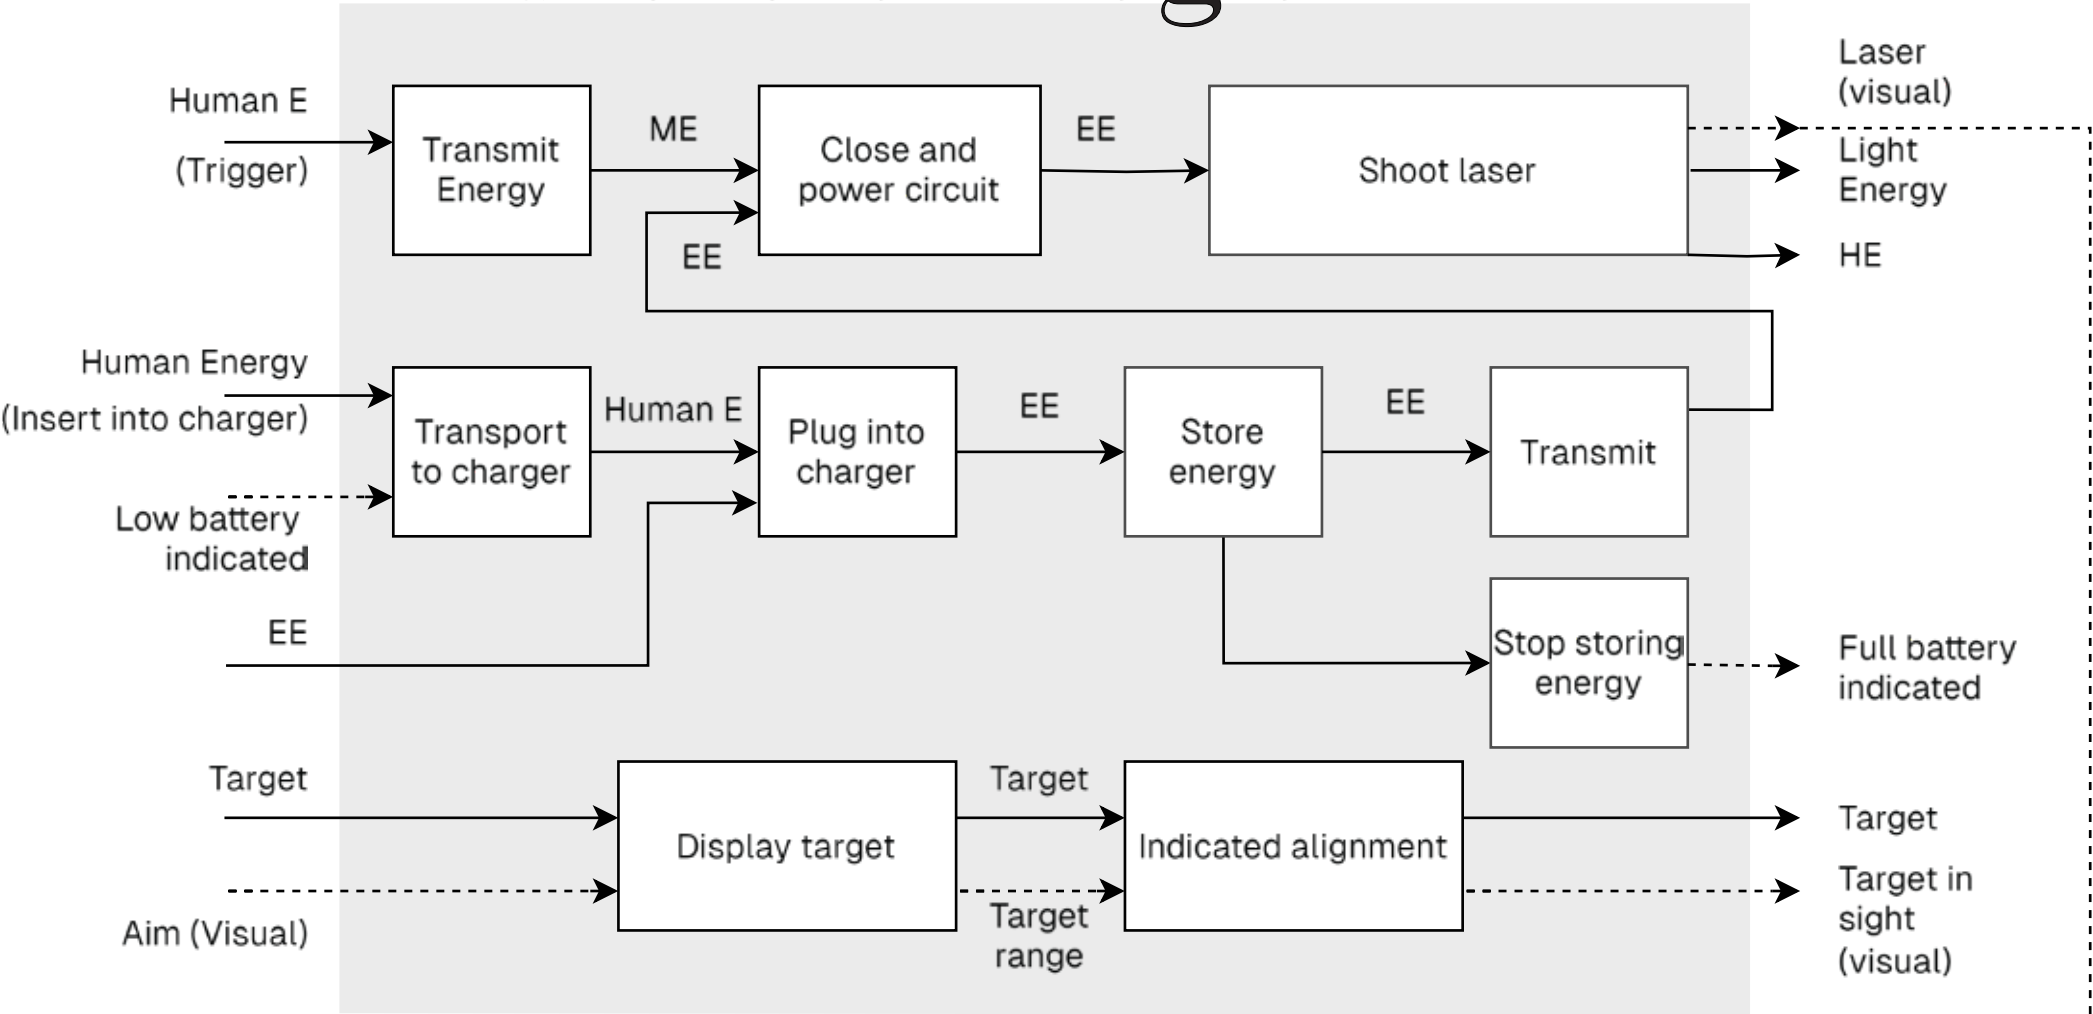

The light installations emit a soft and welcoming glow upon being hit by the laser beams.

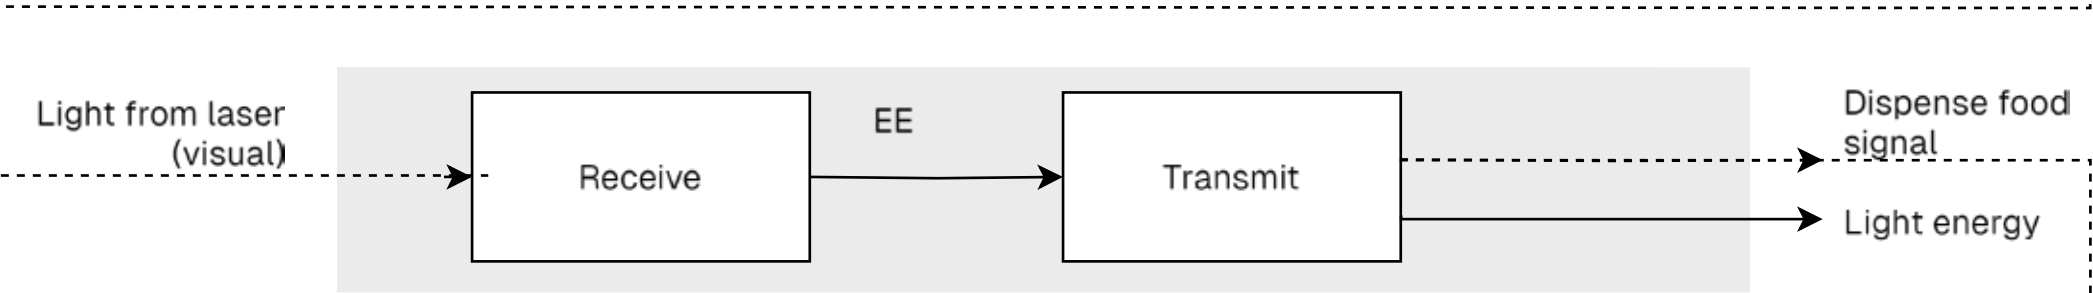

Users marvel as fish gather near the illuminated light installations, enveloped in the ambiance of the pond.
